OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 15 May 1962

25X1 1. [] Talked with Mrs. [] a 25X1 surplus personnel case about whom we had received an inquiry from Speaker McCormack's office, and suggested that she contact [] 25X1
in Personnel, to discuss her situation with him. [] called later and 25X1 25X1 said he and [] had talked with [] and she gave no indication of accepting their suggestion that she talk further with Mr.
25X1 [] in an effort to locate employment outside the Agency. Later in the day, [] called and asked if she could talk with me tomorrow.
I told her that I was not familiar with the details of her situation and offered to arrange an appointment with either Mr. Echols or [] She said 25X1 she would prefer to talk with me and I will see her tomorrow morning.

25X1 2. []
[] Murphy seemed to think that in view of this easy answer to his question, it would not be necessary 25X1 to arrange for a staff briefing on this. However he is to discuss it with the Chairman and let us know if anything further is desired.

25X1 3. [] Miss Fox, secretary to Jay Sourwine of 25X1
the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, called to relay a message from Sourwine thanking us for our offer of the testimony of [] indicating that the Subcommittee has decided they will not call him as a witness.
